*“Pedal Wagon has been the most fun thing to do in Cincinnati since 2011. Start your day on the right foot by pedaling with a 2-hour brunch adventure on Saturday, August 17th. They will take us on a pedal-powered (we have booked an electric assist wagon, we do not have to pedal!) adventure to Court Street Lobster Bar for Brunch <https://www.courtstreetlobsterbar.com/> where you'll enjoy discounted drink specials (exclusive to Pedal Wagon riders) before ending at one of Cincinnati's hottest restaurants for brunch!” Brunch is at your cost.

BYOB with restrictions. Only beer & wine-related beverages (in limited quantities per person). No glass. No hard alcohol. No booze may leave the wagon. No booze taken from bars. Absolutely under no circumstance may you dispose of any alcohol in any other place than the trash bags provided for you on the wagon.

36oz of Can Beer/Rider

Must be <8% ABV

*Malt beverages such as Lime-a-ritas are also allowed.

No Bottle Wine Allowed!

We only allow 18oz of single-serve boxed or canned wine/champagne

What you need to bring along:

ID – Every rider must bring a valid form of identification prior to riding.

Proof of Signed Waiver – Every rider must complete a Liability Waiver prior to riding. We strongly encourage riders to fill out their waivers electronically before arrival.

Comfortable Clothes/Shoes – Please be sure to wear comfortable clothes and shoes for pedaling. We have storage space available on our wagons for extra layers, like jackets.

Food & Drinks – Riders are welcome to bring their own drinks and food. Water may be available for purchase, but we suggest bringing your own hydrating drinks (especially in the summer months). Snacks are never a bad idea either! Please note that you cannot bring any outside food or drink inside of our partner establishments

Cash – Not required, but we suggest that you have cash on-hand for easy transactions inside of the bars.
