

Cincinnati Brewing History Hidden Caverns Tour With Lunch at Northern Row Brewery & Distillery Saturday, October 7, 2023

Join us on Saturday, October 7, for lunch, drinks and a chance to learn about Cincinnati's rich brewing history on American Legacy Tours' Hidden Caverns Tour. The adventure starts and ends at the Northern Row Brewery and Distillery, where we will meet for lunch at 12:30PM. There is free parking in front of the restaurant plus an adjacent pay lot.

The restaurant and tap room are located at the northern edge of Cincinnati's Over the Rhine neighborhood. It is a safe, but not particularly upscale area, so you should probably leave your T-Birds at home. Visit the Northern Row Brewery website link for menus and additional information:

Please confirm the date and time of the tour before you complete your online purchase.

On the Hidden Caverns tours, we'll explore the historic Linck brewery tunnels that lie beneath the city's streets. Then we'll visit the location where Johnny Cash once filmed a movie, followed by a stop at one of Cincinnati's most important inclines. We'll also get a rare glimpse inside one of the last remaining structures of the original Christian Moerlein Brewery complex, which has been closed to the public for decades. We'll wrap up the tour with a beer back at the Northern Row Taproom. The total length of the 90-minute tour is 3/4 mile and includes steep stairs (with handrails). The tour is not wheelchair/stroller accessible.

In addition to ordering your tour tickets from American Legacy's website, don't forget to send an RSVP to Irv to let him know that you are coming.
